Wine & drinks list

Introduction

Our wine philosophy is straightforward. In terms of style, we look for wines of balance, wines that are true to type (representative of their origins), and wines that will complement our style of food. In terms of pricing, our aim is to offer excellent value at each price point. This is particularly noticeable as you move through the price ranges with only small “cash” margins applied to our more premium wines.

To help select our wines, we work closely with our wine consultant / supplier, Miles Corish MW from Milestone Wines. Miles is one of only 352 global Masters of Wine and over the last 25 years, has developed relationships with a strong portfolio of smaller, quality focused wine producers. Wherever possible, we prefer to offer these wines to our customers as in our opinion, not only do smaller producers inevitably offer a superior combination of quality and value of money, many of those that appear in our list are benchmark producers for their region.

In an attempt to make it easier for customers, we have listed our whites and reds into four “categories” or “styles”. Hopefully this will lead to a degree of experimentation and add value to your dining experience. Wine is always subjective and there are seldom absolutes when categorising style – one person’s medium body is another person’s light body – so with this in mind, we are well aware that some individual wines could straddle more than one style category. Allowing for these anomalies however, we do hope that you enjoy our selection and welcome your comments and feedback.

Vintages and prices are subject to change without notice as we prefer to work with smaller wine producers, there are the odd occasions when a wine is unavailable. We aim to keep this to a minimum, and our staff will assist with an alternative wine, in the event that a wine is not available.

Zingy, Refreshing White Wines

Bottle

Within this section, you will find wines that exhibit a zingy freshness. Most often these wines are dry, light-bodied, mostly un-oaked, and usually possess crisp levels of acidity. Given their overall structure, these wines are suitable to consume on their own as an aperitif, and they make ideal partners with white fish, shellfish, or dishes that contain acidic elements, such as vinaigrettes.

31 - La Casada Pinot Grigio 2016, Veneto, Italy 19.50

So often Pinot Grigio is inexpensive and dull. La Casada on the other hand offers gentle pear flavours, hints of acacia, in a refreshing and well-balanced package.

34 - Domaine Tremblay Chablis 2015, France 38.00

There are thousands of Chablis produced each year, all with marked differences. To find a good one, you need to look beyond the word 'Chablis' and find out who makes it. Tremblay are boutiques producers in Chablis and using old vines they handcraft top examples from this classy region. Stone fruits, pebbles and hints of flint combine with an elegant applely finish.

Rounded White Wines

Bottle

Typically, this style of white wine isn't usually noticeably aromatic; tending to be slightly more full-bodied, and in some cases, contain a little less prominent acidity than other categories. Given their structure, they lend themselves to partnering slightly heavier dishes than "zingy, refreshing whites". One of the more versatile white styles in our list, "rounded whites" are capable of matching a wide range of foods. Enjoy with fish, scallops, salads and light risottos.

36 - Villiera Chenin Blanc 2015, Stellenbosch, South Africa 24.00

Owned by the Grier family, Villiera is a 180 hectare estate started in 1983. An absolutely delicious Chenin exhibiting intense stone fruit with honey and hints of wood spice on the nose. The rich, rounded palate reveals pineapple, guava and citrus fruits, is beautifully balanced with a very long finish.

37 - Montsable Chardonnay 2015, IGP Pays d'Oc, Languedoc, France 25.00

Although warmer than the cool climate of Burgundy great care has been taken to ensure that Montsable is every bit as elegant. This classy Chardonnay possesses seductive scents of blossom and cinnamon spice on the nose. This leads to pears, peach, cream and vanilla (from a short spell of oak ageing) on the palate. Beautifully balanced with ripeness, acidity, length and real structure.

38 - Lagar da Xestosa Godello 2015, Monterrei, Spain 28.00

Growing in popularity, and produced in the right hands, Godello can make truly delicious white wine. Family run, Adegas Pazo do Mar combine modern techniques with traditional knowhow to fashion this stunning example. Intense citrus flavours combine with lemongrass and honeydew melon to create a soft, flavoursome palate.

Aromatic White Wines

Bottle

"Aromatic" white styles tend to be naturally pungent, often created from grape varieties whose inherent perfume shines through in the glass. In contrast, more "neutral" styles of white are often made with grape varieties that possess 'less' natural 'perfume' and sometimes owe more of their character to external influences such as winemaking techniques (for example whites that are matured in new oak barrels). Aromatic whites make ideal partners to dishes that have reasonably strong flavours, creating a great foil for spicy dishes or those that have a degree of sweetness.

39 - Villarrica Sauvignon Blanc 2016, Maule Valley, Chile 19.50

Villarrica Sauvignon Blanc is fresh, displaying perfumed citrus and tropical fruit characters. There are hints of grapefruit and elderflower on the palate with a lively and vibrant finish. A lovely example of Sauvignon.

40 - The Courtesan Riesling 2015, Australia 26.50

The fruit for this fantastic wine heralds from the famed Watervale region with South Australia (a sub-region of the Clare Valley). A mouthwatering combination of limes, elderflower with hints of grapefruit. The palate is balanced and refreshing - an excellent example of modern Riesling.

41 - Fairhall Downs Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2015, New Zealand 34.50

One of the first growers in Marlborough (1982), this family estate creates small quantities of top-notch NZ Sauvignon. Intense passion fruit, guava and tomato stalk on the nose. Punchy, Full-bodied Whites

Bottle

Styles of this category are definitely on the weighty side and are ideal for those who prefer full-bodied, creamy, mouth-filling wines. Invariably “punchy, full-bodied” whites will have been made with a degree of barrel fermentation / barrel ageing and from grape varieties known for their ability to produce rich, mouth coating wines. Wines in this section are able to partner strong flavours such as char-grilled chicken, salmon / smoked salmon and even white meats such as pork.

43 - Navajas Blanco Crianza 2013, Rioja, Spain 27.00

45 - Domaine Drouin Macon Bussieres 2015, Burgundy, France 31.00

Light, Elegant and Easy Red Wines

Bottle

Red wines within this section, display fresh fruit aromas and a softness that makes them great on their own or with lighter styles of food. Whilst lovers of “big reds” sometimes overlook these wines, they deserve a place on every wine list, especially when one considers their suitability with certain foods. The juicy fruit flavours and refreshing acidity of these reds mean they are a great accompaniment for poultry, pasta, pork and creamy cheeses.

71 - Villarrica Merlot 2015, Curico Valley, Chile 19.50

74 - Cave Saint-Verny 'Les Volcans' Gamay-Pinot Noir 2015, France 28.50

This is a fascinating blend historically produced in Cotes d'Auvergne (and of course Burgundy). Lovely sweet mixed berry fruit is cushioned by soft tannins, and refreshing levels of acidity. One not to overlook.

Spicy Rounded Reds

Bottle

Spicy reds cover a wide array of grape varieties, aromas and flavours. These wines are characterised by medium tannins and generally possess a softer, more rounded mouth feel. Spicy rounded wines are suitable for a wide range of foods, ranging from poultry, to lighter red meat dishes (such as lamb), through to charcuterie.

75 - Terra Firma Nero d'Avola 2015, Sicily, Italy 24.00

Nero d'Avola from its original home near Pachino has been enlivened with 40% of fruit sourced high in the mountains near Palermo; Terra Firma is ripe and full-bodied but it still has a lively lick of acidity. It's enticing, plummy and a definite cut above the sometimes bland examples, that can be produced by Nero d'Avola. Very appealing.

77 - Cotes du Rhone 'Blason' 2015, Rhone, France 25.00

Sourced from some of the better vineyards in the Southern Rhone, Blason have created a soft, and rounded Cotes du Rhone. A blend of 50% Grenache, 30% Syrah and 20% Mouverdre combine to produce a wine laden with spicy blackberries, hints of liquorice and background 'garrigue'.

Full-Bodied Reds

Bottle

Full-bodied reds are mouth-coating; a result of wine made from 'weightier' grape varieties and / or the wine spending some time in oak barrels. They usually contain moderate to high levels of tannins and cover a spectrum of colours (not just deep red). These wines make suitable partners to stronger foods. Try with red meats (particularly beef), venison and hard cheese.

81 - Buil & Gine Gine 2014, Priorat, Spain 39.00

Remarkable value (Priorat has a reputation as unobtainable for most) this classy and fabulous example exhibits intense notes of flowers, fruits and minerals. The palate is fresh, very fruity, round, balanced and very long.

82 - Chateau Caronne St Gemme 2011, Bordeaux, France 43.00

Dusky blackberry and hedgerow fruit are in abundance with a subtly medicinal note of cedar and a lick of toasty new oak. Structural tannins and fresh acidity provide a framework for this impressively endowed wine.

83 - Redman Shiraz 2012, Coonawarra, Australia 45.00

From an epic vintage comes this full-bodied, spicy, history-laden Australian Shiraz that shows blackberries, red fruits and toasty cedar. The palate is sweetly-fruited and spiced, with hints of herbs and earthiness, a firm yet ripe tannins, and a lingering spicy finish. Try it with steak and pepper sauce.

84 - Domaine Bachey Legros Santenay "La Comme" 2013, Burgundy, France 59.00

Legros have been handcrafting Burgundy for six generations and this knowledge shows through in the quality of their wines. This is a velvety Burgundy offering loads of dark cherry, plums, and mineral flavours. There is a lot of flavour for Pinot lovers here - far removed from the basic "Bourgogne" style.

Powerful, Weighty Reds

Bottle

As the heading suggests, this section comprises our most powerful reds. These wines are rich, often laden with luscious fruit, and in many cases, possess strong tannins. Maturation in oak barrels has enhanced the wine flavour and structure of a number of these wines, providing them with extra depth and a robust character. For those seeking power, character and balance, reds from this section should fit the bill! Best matched with powerful meats, game, and blue cheeses.

85 - Ironstone Old Vine Zinfandel 2015, California 30.00

This fantastic Zinfandel has exceptional varietal character with lovely aromas of blackberry and liquorice. The palate is full-bodied with multiple layers of raspberry, raisins and ripe plums. Barrel aging created its smooth, silky finish..

86 - Dominio de Cair Cuvee de Cair 2014, Ribera del Duero, Spain 40.00

Ribera del Duero has long been one of the most revered regions of Spain thanks to the presence of Vega Sicilia since the 19th century. Bright, complex and enticing aromas of blackberry, graphite and black cherry. Creamy notes combine with some spice on the palate which is nicely rounded thanks to 9 months ageing in older French oak. Smooth and stylish.

89 - Biscardo Amarone di Valpolicella, DOCG, Veneto, Italy, 2012 69.00
